

Employers
Are you aware of the New York State Sexual Harassment
Prevention Law?

Employers
Are you aware that you must provide training for employees
by October 9, 2019?

New York State has mandated that all employers have a sexual harassment prevention policy in place and that all employees must be trained about this policy by October 9, 2019. For more information about this law, check the New York State website, or call Ryan M. Eden at Zabell & Collotta, P.C.

The Suffolk County Electrical Contractors Association will be hosting a free Policy Training Course that will satisfy the requirements of the New York State Law. The course will be offered by Zabell & Collotta, P.C. Zabell & Collotta is a law firm focusing on Labor and Employment Law.
